13. As directed by the probation officer, the individual under supervision shall notify third parties of risks due to the individual's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to the individual under supervision's compliance with such notification requirement.

Travel Restrictions

The Northern District of Indiana is comprised of 32 counties. You are allowed to travel freely within these counties. Unless you are given permission in advance by the judge in your case, any requests to travel outside of these 32 counties must be approved in advance by your U.S. Probation Officer.

1. Failure to obtain advance approval may result in a violation of your supervision.
2. Only the court may approve travel outside of the contiguous United States.
