Standard Conditions of Supervision

These are the standard conditions of supervision or probation the Court must impose.
This does not include special conditions the court may impose.

1. You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and submit to substance abuse testing.
4. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer (if applicable).
5. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (if applicable).
6. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence (if applicable).
7. You must make restitution (if applicable).
8. You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013 (if applicable).
9. You must pay any fine in accordance with the Schedule of Payments (if applicable).
10. You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments (if applicable).
11. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
12. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
13. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
14. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
15. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

16. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
17. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
18. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must now knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
19. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
20. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e. anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as a nunchakus or tasers).
21. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting permission from the court.
22. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified that person about the risk.
23. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
